Provision: Employees who have continuously encumbered GS-1102 positions since 1/1/98 or earlier will be considered to have met the standard for positions they occupy on 1/1/00; they are considered to meet the basic requirements for positions through GS-12. Employees who occupy GS-1102 position at grade 13, will also be considered to meet the new standard for GS-1102 positions at their same grade. However, they will have to meet the new basic requirements in order to qualify for promotion to a higher grade, beginning January 1, 2000. In addition, all employees must meet specialized experience requirements when seeking another position. Specialized Experience: is experience which demonstrates the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to develop, prepare, and present terms and conditions in bids or proposals related to the award of contracts. Time-in-Grade Requirement: Completion of one year of service in a position no more than one grade lower than the grade for which you are applying.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Knowledge of contracting methods, including the policies and procedures governing: negotiated procurement, sealed bid, and simplified acquisitions procedures, FACNET etc.
- Knowledge of policies and procedures pertaining to contract administration functions necessary to monitor the performance of prime contracts including those that contain complex lower-tier subcontract activities.
- Knowledge of cost principles and procedures necessary for the pricing of contracts, subcontracts, and modifications, and for the determination and negotiation of allowable and allocable costs.
- Knowledge of Federal contracting laws (including socio-economic statutes), acquisition regulations and required contract clauses. Understanding of various policies and procedures dealing with special categories of contracting (e.g. service, R&D, IT, lease vs. buy, and major systems acquisition).
- Ability to effectively meet and deal in order to participate in the conduct of complex demanding Negotiation sessions with top level industry, academic, scientific, and/or government officials.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Selective Factor, if any, and the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to this position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year probationary period may also be required.

Status candidates who wish to be considered under both merit promotion and delegated competitive examining procedures must submit two complete applications. If only one application is received, it will be considered under the merit promotion program.

Applicants who are eligible for appointment under special non-competitive appointing authorities must clearly specify your specific eligibility and provide proof with your application. Otherwise, the application will be considered under competitive procedures.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.

Applicants applying for special selection priority under the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program must submit proof of eligibility (i.e., RIF separation notice, Notification of Personnel Action (SF-50) stating you were separated by RIF, OR a letter from your agency documenting your special selection priority status); copy of your current performance appraisal; and documentation of promotion potential in the position from which separated. To be determined well qualified to receive special selection priority for this position, you must meet all qualification and eligibility requirements, all selective factors, and be rated at the above average level or higher in each quality ranking factor.

Veterans who are preference eligible or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after three years or more of continuous active service may apply. Veteran candidates should attach a copy of your DD-214; and, if applicable, Application for 10-Point Veteran's Preference, along with documentation specified on the form. (This is not necessary for status candidates for consideration under merit promotion procedures).

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). Status candidates must also submit a Notification of Personnel Action (SF-50), showing competitive status, and a current Performance Appraisal. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Selective and Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.
